Peter Engle (deceased) was born September 26, 1790, in York County, Penn., and when three years of age moved with his father, Justus Engle, to Frederick County, Md., where he was reared and educated. His early manhood was passed in farming and teaming. During the war of 1812, he was drafted, and served a few months in the year 1814, as Orderly Sergeant. He married Barbara Mentzer February 26, 1824, and in 1833 came to that part of Richland (now included in Morrow) County, Ohio, and engaged in farming. In 1852, Mr. Engle emigrated to Noble County, where two of his sons, Samuel and Washington, had preceded him. He located in Jefferson Township, Section 36, where he took up 120 acres of land, but in 1858 sold forty acres. He was an energetic man, honest, conscientious, and one who commanded the respect and esteem of all. He died September 29, 1868. Mrs. Engle, his wife, was born July 1, 1798, in Frederick County, Md., and she died in Noble County, October 3, 1876. Mr. and Mrs. Engle had eight children—Washington, born November 27, 1824; Samuel, July 9, 1826; Drucilla E., August 18, 1828; Ezra, October 6, 1830; Jesse, July 21, 1833; Adam, December 27, 1836; Catharine, August 15, 1838, and John, March 3, 1840. The latter's death occurred near Vicksburg, in August, 1863, while in the service of his country. He enlisted in the fall of 1862, in the One Hundredth Regiment, Company E, and served faithfully until his death.

"Soldier rest! thy warfare o'er,
Sleep the sleep that knows no breaking;
Dream of battle-fields no more,
Days of danger, nights of waking."

Drucilla Engle married John C. Morgan, and they now reside in Morrow County, Ohio. Ezra married Hannah Favinger, moved to Michigan, and there lives in Eaton County. The subjoined sketches are of those that yet reside in Noble County.

WASHINGTON ENGLE's birth occurred in Frederick County, Md., where he resided until nine years of age, when he came with his parents to Ohio. October 1, 1854, he married Miss Sarah Sigler, and came to Noble County, where he had previously purchased a farm. He now owns 108 acres of fine farming and grazing land on Section 36, in Jefferson Township, where he resides. They have one son—Amos, who married Mary A. Keller, and lives with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Washington Engle are members of the Lutheran Church.

SAMUEL ENGLE was married, September 6, 1852, in Morrow County, Ohio, to Susann Sigler, sister of his brother Washington's wife. They have had two sons—John W. and George W. Samuel and Washington Engle emigrated to Noble County together, in 1847, and for a year worked for Christian Foster, clearing land. They then went back to Morrow County, Ohio, and married. Samuel Engle and wife moved again to Noble County in 1852, where they have since resided. They own 108 acres adjoining Washington Engle on the north. He and wife are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

JESSE ENGLE married Sarah Prouty, in 1860, and their children number seven—Franklin, Adell, Jason, Wilbert and Albert (twins), Arthur and Edward. Albert and Arthur are dead. The mother died August 5, 1879, and July 19, 1880, Mr. Engle married his present wife, Lucina McClurg. Jesse Engle turned his attention to saw-milling in his earlier years, and was a first-class sawyer. He now owns 146 acres of good land in the northeastern part of Green Township, and has held the Township office of Trustee.

He became acquainted with the Moravian Brethren while studying theology at the University of Jena, was private secretary of Count Zinzendorf, and in 1746 was appointed superintendent of the work in Pennsylvania. To this end he was consecrated a Bishop in London. The same year he married the Russian Baroness Anna von Pahlen. Here at Bethlehem he labored with great zeal, and also made many perilous journeys to the Indians, sacrificing his young life in the service.
7. JOHN (alias Tschop (Tschoop)), with the Indian name of Wasamapa, a prominent Mohican living at Shekomeko, near the Hudson, in New York State. He was converted under the preaching of the Moravian missionary C. H. Rauch and baptized on April 16, 1742. Subsequently he became an Evangelist among his people. In 1745 these Christian Mohicans were driven from their homes and came to Bethlehem; John and other Indians soon after died of small-pox. He departed this life August 27, 1746, much lamented by his people and by the white Brethren.
8. THOMAS, otherwise called Pechtowappid, a Mohican from Shekomeko, who was baptized on August 11, 1742, by C. H. Rauch. Coming to Bethlehem, he served as warden of the small Indian congregation, and died of small-pox, August 15, 1746.

11. JOSEPH, a Mohican, died of small-pox, July 21, 1746.
12. JOHN GOLD, 1678–1745, born at Zauchtenthal, Moravia, and at one time the magistrate of that village; emigrated to Herrnhut in 1727, proceeded with a Moravian colony to St. Croix, but was recalled. Later he served on St. Thomas, W. I., and spent his declining years here in retirement. His daughter Anna married Dr. Krieglstein, a Moravian medical missionary who spent many years imprisoned in Russia.
13. DAVID ZEISBERGER, 1696–1744, from Zauchtenthal, Moravia, the father of the distinguished missionary of the same name. In 1736 he, with his wife Rosina, came over to Georgia and in 1740 proceeded from there to Pennsylvania, where Zeisberger became one of the founders of the town of Bethlehem.
14. MICHAEL TANNEBERGER, 1704–44, a married man from Moravia, and a shoemaker by trade.

AARON CHAMBLIN was born May 7, 1824, in Maryland County, Va. He is one of three children now living of a family of seven born to Nelson and Sarah (Koonce) Chamblin, who were of English-German descent. Nelson Chamblin was a farmer of Virginia, where he plied his vocation until about 1833, when he and family moved to Knox County, Ohio, and from there to Richland County, same State, where they lived a number of years. Mr. and Mrs. Chamblin died in Wood County, Ohio, the former in October, 1878, and the latter in 1880. Mr. Chamblin was a soldier of the war 1812, and his father served in the Revolutionary war. Aaron Chamblin was married January 1, 1850, to Mary Imes, sister of William Imes, and his home, from his birth to two years after his marriage, was with his parents. In 1855, he came to Noble County, and purchased a portion of his present place in Jefferson Township, paying for the same $4.75 per acre. It at that time was all woods and such improvements as now exist on the place were made by Mr. Chamblin. He now owns 170 acres in Jefferson Township, and eighty-two acres in Orange Township. Mr. Chamblin is a Democrat, and he and wife are members of the U. B. Church. To them were born nine children—William, Richard, Thomas, Theodore and Elmore (twins), Elbiney, George, Mary and Charley. Elbiney, George and the twins are dead. William, or J. W. H., as he writes his name, married Frances I. Keller, and is engaged in mercantile business in Brimfield. He has been twice burned out, but is a young man of pluck and enterprise, and is destined to make his mark in the world.

JOHN EARL was born in the County Tyrone, Ireland, April 22, 1815. John and Ann (Gray) Earl, his parents, were both natives of "Erin's Isle," but of Scottish descent, and farmers in Ireland. John Earl was reared to manhood in his native country, obtaining but a limited education. He was married, March 29, 1837, to Miss Ann Trott. In 1840, they took passage, from Londonderry, on a sailing vessel bound for Philadelphia, and after an eight weeks and three days' journey arrived at their destination. For seven years succeeding his arrival, Mr. Earl was employed on a farm near the city. In 1847, he emigrated to Huron County, Ohio, where he farmed for three years, and in 1850 moved to Noble County, which has since been his home. He first purchased eighty acres of his present farm, which he has since increased to 160 acres. Mr. and Mrs. Earl have had five children—William, Annie, John, Mary and Robert. The two youngest are dead. John married Sarah Schauwker; William married Josephine Bliss; and both are living in Noble County. Mr. Earl was formerly a Whig, but is now identified with the Republicans. Although a member of no church, he is liberal in their support. His parents were of the Presbyterian faith, and such is our subject in belief. He is considered one of the best-informed men in Jefferson Township. Through his long life of labor, he has been ably assisted by his brave wife, who has been kind and affectionate to her family.

JACOB EASLEY was born in Canton Berne, Switzerland, July 23, 1820, a son of Jacob and Catharine (Burke) Easley, the mother being a native of England. Jacob Easley was the father of sixteen children, six by his first wife, Catharine Burke, and ten by his last wife. Our subject was a resident of his native country until 1834, when he came with his parents to the United States, locating near Buffalo, N. Y., where they remained farming two years. In 1836, the family removed to Crawford County, Ohio, where they partici-

This year's Civic Theater Guild Follies goes on stage Thursday through Saturday at the Performing Arts Center with a theme of "Smile Awhile." Tickets are now on sale at the Civic box office in the Center. The Follies raise thousands of dollars each year to keep Civic Theater in business. Mrs. Morris McCoy Davis

Avilla EUB Ceremony Unites Patricia Miller, M. M. Davis

The Evangelical United Brethren Church, Avilla, was the scene of the Saturday night marriage of Miss Patricia Ann Miller to Morris McCoy Davis. Double-ring vows were read at 7 o'clock by the Rev. Donald Ruhl and the Rev. Paul DeHoff before an altar graced with palms, candelabra and beauty vases of pink, white and blue spring flowers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Miller of Avilla, and James O. Davis of Florence, Ala., is the bridegroom's father.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a gown of Chantilly lace and net over satin. A sweetheart neckline and long sleeves fashioned the bodice and the full skirt was floor-length. She carried a heart-shaped cascade of white roses topped with a white orchid.

Mrs. Rosalyn DeHoff was her sister's honor attendant and bridesmaids were the Misses Louise Goff of LaOtto, Carol Crow of Fort Wayne and Janice Cleland. The matron of honor was attired in a white nylon dress accented with blue roses and she carried yellow chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids were identically gowned and carried white chrysanthemums. Lana Jo Shroyer was flower girl and Stephen DeHoff carried the rings.

Serving at a reception at the Avilla High School gymnasium were the Misses Ann Marti, Joyce Wilson, Rita Winebrenner and Joann Moody.

For traveling south, the bride changed to a beige suit with white accessories.

TO WED — The Evangelical United Brethren Church at Avilla will be the scene of the June 7 wedding of Miss Patricia Ann Miller to Morris Davis, son of James O. Davis, Florence, Ala. The engagement and coming wedding have been announced by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller, Avilla, parents of the bride-elect. Miss Miller is a graduate of Avilla High School and is a teletype operator at the Magnavox Co. Mr. Davis, who attended school in Florence, is employed in Albany, Ky., by the Midwestern Telephone Co.

Jane Englehart, Edward Myers Repeat Vows In Methodist Rite

The Rev. Howard Western officiated at the Saturday afternoon marriage of Miss June Elaine Englehart and Edward Earl Myers. The double-ring ceremony was read at 2 o'clock in the Huntertown Methodist Church following a musicale by Mrs. Ruby Yoder.

Mrs. E. E. Myers

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Englehart and Mr. and Mrs. Earl G. Myers, all of Huntertown.

A gown Chantilly lace and nylon tulle was chosen by the bride. The bodice was fashioned with a boat neckline and long sleeves and the full skirt fell into a chapel train. A Juliet cap held her chapel length veil and she carried white roses centered with an orchid.

Miss Betty Myers, sister of the bridegroom, attended as maid of honor wearing a blue waltz length gown of lace over taffeta. Mrs. Al Pepple wore an identical gown and Miss Lou Ann Meyer, cousin of the bride, and Miss Dorothy Englehart, sister of the bride, wore maching gowns in pink. They carried red roses. Phyllis Ormerod, the bride's cousin, and Gary Englehart, her brother, were flower girl and ring bearer, respectively.

Jack McComb was best man with Dennis Englehart, brother of the bride, Al Pepple, Don Pranger and Harold Lavachek ushering.

Following a wedding breakfast at the Colonial Restaurant, the couple received guests at the Log Cabin. The Misses An Knop, Sally Tom, Barbara Balliet and Sandy and Beverly Gros assisted with the serving.

When the couple return from a wedding trip south, they will reside in Huntertown.

Mary Fought Repeats Vows In Trinity Methodist Chuch

The Rev. Charles D. Elson read the ceremony at 3 p.m. today in which Miss Mary Eleanor Fought, 615½ Lawton Place, became the bride of Leonard Pauley. Nuptial music by Mrs. Larry Beaty preceded the ceremony, which was performed in the Trinity Methodist Church in a setting of palms and summer flowers.

The bride is the daughter of Willis Fought, Topeka, and Mr. Pauley's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pauley, 1531 Stophlet St.

Brief lace sleeves and a scalloped square neckline were fashion details of the gown of taffeta and Chantilly lace worn by the bride. The bouffant skirt was accented by a princess line front panel. A sheer veil was caught to the bride's lace headband, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Gowns of embossed nylon sheer over blue and coquette taffeta were worn by the bride's attendants. Matron of honor was Mrs. Biolus Brock, and bridesmaids were the Misses Donna Ulmer, Huntington; Thelma Broerman and Barbara LaLonde. Sashes and scoop necklines styled the gowns.

Harold Redman served as best man, and guests were ushered by Lester Green, Charles Crawford and Richard Schoenle.

Mrs. Green, Mrs. Schoenle and Mrs. Richard Fawley assisted at the reception in the church social rooms following the ceremony.

A yellow sheath dress with white accessories, will comprise the bride's traveling ensemble. After a trip to Florida, the couple will be at home at 824 West Washington Blvd.

Notes

Members of Keller's Church in Bedminster,Pa. I believe many of Christopher's children were born and baptised at the Keller Church,the other's were born in Ohio. Most of them remained close to the family homestead that Christopher's father, Heinrich, had started back shortly after they came to America in 1738.

Christopher was commisioned an ensign in 1776,and his company was assigned to the "Flying Camp" and participated in the disastrous campaign on Long Island,where so many Bucks countians lost their lives or became prisoners in the "floating hells"in New York harbor.

Christopher's will filed Buck's Co.,Haycock Twp.,Pa. Aug 20,1820..Vol s , pg 413

KELLER, ELMINA & Eugene Keller

4 DEC. 1941

ELMINA KELLER

Elmina, daughter of George and Rachel Hines, was born in Richland county, Ohio, Jan. 7, 1861, and departed this life in Albion, Ind., Dec. 4, 1941, aged 80 years, 10 months and 27 days. She was united in marriage on June 28, 1879, to Arthur Eugene Keller, who in extreme illness survives her.

Mr. and Mrs. Keller lived on their farm near Rehobeth church in Noble county, until they came to Albion in 1903.

Together they joined the Albion Methodist church in 1922. They lived their last years together in quiet, peaceful retirement, sharing their joys and sorrow, awaiting the final call which should separate them in this life.

Mrs. Keller had suffered the affliction of a stroke of partial paralysis, but had regained sufficiently to help care for her husband in his recent illness, but a second stroke brought on the close of her long life.

She leaves her husband, three nieces and five nephews and friends.

Swift to its close ebbs out
Life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim,
It's sorrows pass away;

Lucy, I hope this finds you well.

I'm sorry it has been so long since I promised you the pictures. I have attached a zip file containing a few. You should be able to double-click it and choose "extract." Make sure you notice where it's going to put them! There's one photo of a Keller reunion in the mid-50s for which I have no names. Maybe you recognize someone.

My address is

Alta Mary Keller (she went by "Mary" or "Kay") was born in Green Center and lived most of her life in Fort Wayne. She had two daughters, Velda and June. June was my grandmother. She passed away about five years ago at age 93.

I don't have much information about the Cupp family. Al was June's second husband so I've focused most of my research on her first husband, my natural grandfather. I'm not sure where Grandpa Al was born but he lived in Washington in Whitley County during his youth. There were six or seven siblings as I recall but I don't have all the names written down. Much of the family is still in Fort Wayne.

Al's father was John Cupp, who was born in Ohio in 1861 and died in Whitley County on Christmas Day in 1931.

Kindly,
Luanne

Last Wednesday a large congregation of neighbors and friends met at the Rehobeth church to pay their last respects to a beloved neighbor, Mrs. G. W. Keller, who died at her residence Monday of last week, in Green township. A very affecting discourse was preached by Rev. Owen Bowen of Albion, after which the remains were deposited in the Rehobeth cemetery. Mrs. Keller was held in high esteem by all who knew her.

Death of Will Keller.

William Keller, who has been afflicted with that dread disease, consumption for some time, died at the home of his parents in Green township, Thursday November 10, 1898. He was the son of John C. and Mary Keller. He was born June 2, 1879 and at the time of his demise was aged nineteen years, five months and eight days. He was a moral young man and will be greatly missed among the young people of his neighborhood. He had made his peace with God and was ready to go. A short time before he died he offered prayer to God, and told the friends who had gathered around his bed that he was going to die and bade them all good bye by asking God to bless them. He leaves a father and mother, five sisters, two brothers and a number of relatives and friends to mourn his departure. The funeral services were held at the Rehobeth church, Saturday, Rev. W. L. Parker officiating. The remains were interred in the Rehobeth cemetery. We extend to the grief stricken relatives our heartfelt sympathy in their bereavment.

In Memoriam.

In loving remembrance of ANNA R. KELLER who died at her home in Green Center, Saturday Sept. 6, 1890.

Anna's gone, and sad she left us;
Gone to Heaven so far above
Where the gates are all so pearly;
And the ransomed dwell in love.

All her troubles now are ended·
She is free from toil and pain,
And our tears, and sighs, and kisses,
Will not bring her back again.

She is sleeping, sweetly sleeping·

Her last illness was only a few days, at times she suffered much, but her last moments were peaceful, quietly falling to sleep to await the resurrection morn.

She lived a very useful life having been left with a family of small children, whom she clung to and guided through many ups and downs always extending a sympathetic and helping hand.

As a neighbor and friend she was obliging and faithful in sickness and death, her presence was a comfort. Her home was always open to the homeless.

JESUS LOVES ME

Jesus loves me this I know
Though my hair is white as snow
Though my sight is growing dim
Still He bids me trust in Him.

YES JESUS LOVES ME,
YES JESUS LOVES ME
YES JESUS LOVES ME
FOR THE BIBLE TELLS ME SO

Though my steps are oh so slow
With my hand in His I'll go
On through life let come what may
He'll be there to lead the way.

YES JESUS LOVES ME,
YES JESUS LOVES ME
YES JESUS LOVES ME
FOR THE BIBLE TELLS ME SO

When the nights are dark and long
In my heart He puts a song.
Telling me in words so clear
'Have no fear for I am near"

YES JESUS LOVES ME,
YES JESUS LOVES ME
YES JESUS LOVES ME
FOR THE BIBLE TELLS ME SO

When my work on earth is done
And life's victories have been won.
He will take me home above
Then I'll understand His love

YES JESUS LOVES ME,
YES JESUS LOVES ME
YES JESUS LOVES ME
FOR THE BIBLE TELLS ME SO

(VI) Hiram Harpel Keller was born at Bedminster, August 9, 1878. He studied in the public school, took part of his secondary instruction at Sellersville and the balance thereof at West Chester State Normal, and became a teacher, at which occupation he continued for three years. He then took a supplementary preparatory course at Stevens Hall, entered Gettysburg College, and received the degree of Bachelor of Arts in 1901. In 1904, after special advanced work, he took the Master of Arts degree from Gettysburg.

The law attracted him, and Mr. Keller undertook its study at the University of Pennsylvania, graduating in 1904 with the degree of Bachelor of Laws, having, meanwhile, completed work toward his Masters' degree as recounted. In 1940, Muhlenberg College awarded him the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws. Admitted to the bar of Bucks County in 1905, he began at once a general line of practice. His advance was steady, rapid and soon brought him a respected standing. With this advance came also his advance in Republican politics, and in 1911 Mr. Keller was elected chairman of the Republican County Committee. This chairmanship he held for eighteen years, until he became a member of the bench. In 1915 he became county solicitor; he held the office three years, and the year before retirement was elected district attorney for Bucks County. In 1921, retiring as prosecutor, in which office he had made a notable record, he was reëlected on the strength of that record until 1925. Meanwhile his political works had been continued. As public officer he won the esteem of both parties, and in 1912 had been made chairman of the Pennsylvania League of Republican County Chairmen. He gave himself to private practice of the law and to political movements from 1925 until named to the bench, March 26, 1929. He was then acting also as compensation referee for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. In 1929 an additional judgeship was created by the Assembly for Bucks County, and Judge Keller was appointed by Governor Fisher, with the endorsement of the leaders of the bar and bench. On April 30, 1930, he was commissioned president judge. As such he continues down to the present (1942), having been reëlected in 1940, with the

There are many Daniel Kellers in my line, so will start with Daniel the 7th child of Henry Keller/Catherine Seitz. He was born oct 1797, in Shrewsbury Township, York Co., Pa. and died in Fairfield Co., Ohio April 1887. When 11 years old he left Pa. with family & migrated to Ohio. He married Susannah Ruffner of a very old Rockingham Co. Va. family in 1824. Of all of Henry & Catherines children he is by far the most distinguished. Born to Daniel & Susannah are the following children: Simon, 1825, Lovina 1826, Joseph 1827, Emaunuel 1829, Sophia 1830, David 1834, Catherine 1836, Anania 1837, Augustus 1838, Martha Anne 1840, Susan 1842.

If you see anything that makes you think there is a connection, let me know and I can send you other information.

Dear Lucy,

Since arriving home from my trip to Ohio I went thru my Caris file and found the following. Unfortunately I had gleaned the file some time ago and discarded what was not my line. Hope this will be of some interest to you.

Frederick Caris, Sr. 1759-1854 (buried in Kent, OH)- came to Portage County, OH in 1804. Was orignally from Northumberland County, PA. Settled in Rootstown Twp. Lot 43. He lived on the Ohio River, 30 miles south of Pittsburgh before going to Portage County. His wife was Mary Wagoner.

Frederick, Sr. and Mary had two sons (at least) - Frederick, Jr. and John. Both served in the War of 1812.

Frederick, Jr. 1779-1849, buried in Brimfield Cemetery, Portage Co. Married Rachel Hook (Hoeke)?

Frederick, Jr. and Rachel had children - Martha, Mary, Mathias, Hiram, John, Catherine, Joel, Frederic and Rachel. (May have been more.)

Mathias Wagoner Caris, son of Frederick, Jr. and Rachel, b. 4 Apr 1812 in Portage County. D. 26 Mar 1870 in Cardington, OH. Married in Bucyrus, OH 26 Mar 1842 to Hannah Wiseman, b. 28 Jun 1823 near Carlise, PA, d. 29 Aug 1905 in Cardington, OH.

Squire A. Caris, son of Mathias and Hannah Caris, married Saphrona Eliza Warner.

Albert Garfield Caris, son of Squire and Saphrona Caris, b. 13 Sep 1881 in Cardington, OH, d. 13 Jun 1971 in Xenia, OH. Married 27 Dec 1904 to Gertrude Jennings.

According to History of Portage County - "Brother John's children were George, a shoemaker; Michael, a farmer; Frederick, a blacksmith; Samuel, a farmer; Lycurgus, a stone and brick mason; Henry, a farmer; Mary, married to James Likings; Susan, wife of Nelson Fuller; and one other." John's wife was Elizabeth Hartle.

I had received the above info from Gertrude Palmer, 23 W. Whittier Fairborn, OH 45324 - 20 years ago. I do not know if she is still living.

My friend from Wisconsin hopes to make the trip again next year. She had not been in the area before, and I took her around the town of New Wash., Crawford Co. where our ancestors had settled. (Millers)

Maybe we will meet again.

Sincerely,
Lorraine Caris

The record needed to answer your inquiry is not in our files. If the record were here on July 12, 1973, it would have been in the area that suffered the most damage in the fire on that date and may have been destroyed. The fire destroyed the major portion of records of Army military personnel for the period 1912 through 1959, and records of Air Force personnel with surnames Hubbard through Z for the period 1947 through 1963. Fortunately, there are alternate records sources that often contain information which can be used to reconstruct service record data lost in the fire.

We are pleased to enclose NA Form 13038, Certification of Military Service. This document verifies military service and may be used for any official purpose. A seal has been affixed to this document to attest to its authenticity. The information used to prepare the enclosed NA Form 13038 was obtained from an alternate record source.

In working to fulfill your request, we noted that your inquiry did not include the signed consent of the individual whose record is involved (Roy G. Green) and must be returned without action. The Privacy Act of 1974 provides for the release of information only with the written consent (signature) of the individual to whom the record pertains. If the person is legally incompetent, the legal guardian must sign the release. (The legal representative or guardian should furnish a copy of the court appointment.) If the individual is deceased we must have the written consent of the next of kin. The next of kin is defined as: unremarried widow or widower, son, daughter, father, mother, brother or sister.

Once we receive the necessary authorization we will make every effort to furnish the requested information. Please include with that authorization a copy of your original inquiry.

Please fill out the attached form completely, sign it, and mail it back using the envelope that I am providing. Please ensure you place proper postage on our envelope to prevent any delays in processing. This will ensure that your request will be routed to me for special handling. I will hold your request for 30 days. If no reply is received, I will close your case.

We have made every effort to assist you within the constraints of our resources. If you have any questions or comments regarding this response, you can reach me by phone at (314) 538-4240 or by mail at the address shown in the letterhead above, ATTN: NRPM5, Room 2315. Ensure you include the Case Reference Number listed above. All new requests for information or documents, or requests that pertain to other veterans, must be made in writing to the address shown in the letterhead above. Our web site also includes pertinent phone numbers and a request form.
